

1. My School

My school is very big. It has a large playground. There are many classrooms. The classrooms are clean. We have a library in our school. It has many books. I like to read storybooks. Our teachers are kind and helpful. They teach us different subjects. We also have a science lab and a computer room. Every morning, we have an assembly. We sing prayers and songs. There are many trees in our school garden. Flowers bloom there. I love my school very much. It is my second home. I always try to keep it clean. I feel happy in my school.

2. My Best Friend

I have many friends. But Rohan is my best friend. He is my classmate. We go to school together. He is very kind and honest. He always helps me in studies. We play games in the evening. His favorite game is cricket. He is good at drawing. He also sings very well. We share our tiffin during lunch. He never tells lies. I like his good habits. He respects teachers and elders. Everyone likes him in the class. I am lucky to have him as my best friend. I always pray for him. Our friendship is very strong.

3. My Favourite Teacher

My favourite teacher is Mrs. Meena. She teaches us English. She is very polite and kind. She explains lessons very clearly. She tells us stories in class. She also gives us good advice. She always smiles while teaching. She loves all students equally. She never gets angry. She helps weak students with care. She also tells us about discipline and good manners. She encourages us to study hard. She checks our notebooks regularly. She motivates us to read books. All students like her. I respect her very much. I want to be like her in future.

4. Deepawali

Deepawali is the festival of lights. It is one of the biggest festivals in India. People clean and decorate their houses. They light diyas and candles. Many people also use electric lights. On this day, Lord Rama returned to Ayodhya after 14 years. People welcomed him with joy. We worship Goddess Lakshmi on Diwali. People wear new clothes and exchange sweets. Children enjoy crackers and fireworks. The market looks very bright and colorful. Diwali gives us happiness and joy. It also teaches us to win good over evil. We must celebrate Diwali safely. We should not waste money on crackers. We must take care of animals and nature. Diwali is a festival of love, unity, and peace.
