

Two Friends and A Bear

Once upon a time there were two friends. One day they were travelling through a forest. They had promised to help each other in trouble. After sometime they saw a big bear coming towards them. They were afraid to see it. One of the friends ran and climbed up a tree. The other friend did not know how to climb a tree. He lay down on the ground and held his breath. The bear smelled him. It thought him to be dead and went away. Now the other friend came down. He asked his friend, "What did the bear say in your ear?" The friend replied, "Never trust false friends!"

Moral: Never trust false friends.
